

International Studies Program
Major Checksheet for Semesters
Bachelor of Arts Degree in the College of Liberal Arts

The International Studies major is designed to offer students the opportunity to undertake serious study in international politics, culture and society. The major combines intensive study of a foreign language with an interdisciplinary curriculum of study chosen by the student in consultation with a faculty advisor. The six specialized tracks include:

- A. International Diplomacy and Peace Studies
- B. Area Studies
- C. Comparative Cultures
- D. International Economic Affairs
- E. Global Gender Studies
- F. Research/Intelligence Analyst

Students are encouraged to consider spending an optional term or year of university study abroad in their chosen language. This major provides students with a degree relevant to careers in government, international law, business, and organizations, teaching, or related fields.
