

WSU  MUN

Wright State University Model United Nations

2015-2016

2014-2015 WSU Delegation representing the Netherlands

What Do WSU MUN Students Do?

- Simulate the work of the United Nations.
- Learn to research, debate, write and speak about global issues.
- Host and participate in the annual regional training simulation, “One-Day Sim,” at WSU in January
- Participate in conferences
 - > Dayton (DAYMUNC)
 - > NYC (National Model UN)

Dayton Model United Nations Conference
Sinclair Community College
Dayton, Ohio

DAYMUNC XXII
February 6-7, 2015

NMUN · NY

Who can participate?

- All majors, ages, and GPAs are welcome to apply.
 - > Issues covered:
 - Peace and Security
 - Economics, Trade and Finance
 - Human Rights
 - Energy and the Environment
 - Technology
 - Public Health
- No previous experience with MUN or prerequisite classes are required.
- Any WSU student who is:
 - > Interested in international affairs
 - > Looking to improve public speaking, researching, writing, and negotiation skills
 - > Seeking an academic challenge
 - > Motivated to learn outside of the classroom

WSU students at regional DAYMUNC

What do you have to do?

● PLS 4860 Model UN Class

- > 3 credit hour, upper-level Political Science class
- > Spring Semester: MWF 1:30-6:00pm
- > Dr. Vaughn Shannon, Faculty Advisor

● Apply the credit hours to your degree:

- > University elective (All majors)
- > Writing Intensive credit (All majors)
- > College elective (Liberal Arts)
- > Major elective (Political Science, International Studies)
- > Can take for repeat credit hours

Why be a member of the team?

- Be part of a proud WSU tradition
 - > Award-winning delegation at NMUN for 36 consecutive years.
- Develop essential life and work skills for your resume and for future success.
 - > WSU MUN Alum have gone on to jobs in the following careers:
 - Foreign Service Officer
 - National Air & Space Intelligence Officer
 - Federal Bureau of Investigation
 - Congressional Staffer
 - Premier Health Partners Senior Staff
 - Chamber of Commerce—Public Relations
 - College Professor
 - Attorney
 - Dept. of Homeland Security
 - Financial Account Manager
 - Author
 - US Agency for International Development (USAID)
 - Kettering Foundation Researcher
- Gain friendships and networking contacts for life.
 - > Meet and work with students from all over the world

Japanese Ambassador Kodama briefing the 2011 WSU delegation and discussing their white slice.

Photo credit: Mission of Japan/CONRAD

How do You Join WSU MUN?

● Today:

- > Sign our email list to receive important updates about information sessions and interviews.

● September:

- > Attend information sessions: Meet current members of the team and learn more about MUN
- > Complete an application (available in 325 Millett)

● October:

- > Interviews and notification

● November:

- > Country and committee assignments

Questions?

Please contact Dr. Shannon at vaughn.shannon@wright.edu

or

Head Delegates Angie Loyd and Garrett Teets at wsumunrecruit@gmail.com