

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY MODEL UNITED NATIONS

2016-2017

2016 WSU Delegation in New York City

WHAT DO YOU DO & WHAT DO YOU GET?

- Fall Club

- Information Session & Interviews
- Social events and activities
- Get country and committee assignments

- Spring Class

- PLS 4860/6860 Model UN
 - 3 credit hour Political Science class
 - Spring Semester: MWF 1:25-3:20pm
- Apply the credit hours to your degree:
 - University elective (All majors)
 - Writing Intensive credit (All majors)
 - College elective (Liberal Arts)
 - Major elective (Political Science, International Studies)
 - Take for repeat credit hours next year

WHAT DO WSU MUN STUDENTS DO?

- Learn to research, debate, write and speak about global issues
- Learn to represent a UN Member State's position while solving pressing global problems
- Host and participate in the annual regional training simulation, 1-Day Sim, at WSU in January
- Participate in DAYMUNC (Dayton, February)
- Earn a Chance to participate in NMUN (National Model UN, March)
 - WSU-paid week-long trip to New York City

1-DAY SIM

DAYMUNC XXII
February 6-7, 2015

Dayton Model United Nations Conference
Sinclair Community College
Dayton, Ohio

NMUN · NY

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- All majors, ages, and GPAs are welcome
- No previous experience with MUN
- No prerequisite classes required
- Any WSU student who:
 - Interested in international affairs
 - Seeking leadership skills
 - Seeking to improve public speaking, researching, writing, and negotiation skills
 - Wants to be part of something big

WSU students at the regional DAYMUNC Conference

WHY BE A MEMBER OF THE TEAM?

- Be part of a proud WSU tradition
 - Award-winning delegation at NMUN for 37 consecutive years.
- Develop essential life and work skills for your resume & for future success.
 - WSU MUN Alum have gone on to jobs in the following careers:
 - Foreign Service Officer
 - National Air & Space Intelligence Officer
 - Federal Bureau of Investigation
 - Congressional Staffer
 - Premier Health Partners Senior Staff
 - Chamber of Commerce—Public Relations
 - College Professor
 - Attorney
 - Dept. of Homeland Security
 - Financial Account Manager
 - US Agency for International Development (USAID)
 - Kettering Foundation Researcher
- Gain friendships and networking contacts for life.
 - Meet and work with students from all over the world

Individual awards won by WSU students at DAYMUNC

MUN Alum and WSU graduate, Tabitha Woodruff, lecturing about human trafficking

Japanese Ambassador Kodama briefing the 2011 WSU delegation
Photo credit: Mission of Japan/CONRAD

HOW DO YOU JOIN WSU MUN?

- Today:

- Email us at vaughn.shannon@wright.edu or wsumunrecruit@gmail.com to ask questions, express interest and get on our email list. You'll receive important updates about information sessions and interviews.
- Complete an application: in person (325 Millett Hall) or online (coming soon)

- September:

- Attend information sessions: Meet members of the team and learn more about MUN
- Interviews (TBA)

- October:

- Notification of acceptance

- November:

- Country and committee assignments

QUESTIONS?

Contact Faculty Advisor Dr. Vaughn Shannon at vaughn.shannon@wright.edu or

Head Delegates at wsumunrecruit@gmail.com