Wright State University
16th Annual Saxophone Festival

Saturday, November 20th, 2021, 8:30 am-5 pm

Who can attend? All middle school and high school saxophonists are invited to attend, as well as band directors.

What happens at the festival? Chamber ensembles will rehearse as well as perform. Clinics will be held to broaden the students knowledge of saxophone. The festival will be from 8:30-5, and concludes with a performance at 3:30.

What does the festival cost? $35 covers registration fee; masterclasses, recital, clinics, lunch, and festival t-shirt. (Must be registered 14 days prior to receive a t-shirt) Items provided by saxophone vendors will be raffled off!

What should I bring to the festival? Bring your saxophone and at least four working reeds. If you are preparing a solo for OMEA, please bring your music in case there is time for a coaching.
