It has been wonderful to see the busy hallways and classrooms and feel the energy and excitement as we begin the new school year. Last Thursday's Move-in Day brought freshmen to campus along with countless volunteers to help them and their families settle in and feel welcome at Wright State. On Friday, new students roamed our buildings and offices as part of a scavenger hunt to get to know their new campus.

Last week’s COLA Picnic at Delco Park brought nearly 50 faculty and staff together to reconnect and celebrate this year’s COLA Outstanding Award Recipients. Congratulations to:

On Monday, Grammy-nominated performer and 2017 Wright State Alumna of the Year Nicole Scherzinger spent the afternoon visiting with faculty, staff, students, and friends of the Department of Theatre, Dance, and Motion Pictures. She shared memories of her time as a student at Wright State and gave advice to current students on how to succeed by being relentless. What a wonderful way to kick off the semester!

Last spring's Professional Mentoring Program was a success, so we plan to expand the program this academic year. This is a wonderful opportunity for our students to learn from an experienced business professional who can offer valuable insight and knowledge about what to expect as they enter the workforce. We are accepting mentee applications through Friday, September 7. Please encourage your students who are juniors and seniors with a minimum 2.75 GPA to apply.

Mark your calendar for September 9, 12:00 - 4:00 p.m. when the Robert & Elaine Stein Galleries will host an opening reception, public lecture, and gallery talk for the following exhibitions: Four Decades: Ron Geibert 1978-2017, The Collection, and The Celebrative Spirit 1937-1943. The reception will include a free public lecture by Jack Hurley from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. in 280 Creative Arts Center and a gallery talk by Ron Geibert from 2:30 - 3:00 p.m. in the Stein Galleries.

Have a wonderful Labor Day weekend,
