

Master of Humanities Program Graduate Tuition Scholarship Application

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

A limited number of scholarships are offered to Master of Humanities students by the Graduate School. The amount of the scholarship varies depending on available funds and student merit. The goals of the scholarship program are to recruit and retain graduate students who have demonstrated academic excellence in the past and who exhibit the potential for continued academic excellence in the future. To be eligible for the scholarship, students must qualify for regular admission in the Master of Humanities Program. Questions regarding the tuition scholarship program should be addressed to the Program Director.

These scholarships are given to individuals who can demonstrate maturity, responsibility, and enthusiasm for the study of the humanities, as well as a strong academic record. In a short essay (no more than 250 words) please discuss how your education and experience qualify you for this scholarship. This essay should be different from the "statement of purpose" that you submitted with your Master of Humanities Program application.
