LEAP Fact
399...that is the number of Wright State University students who have completed the LEAP program and received admission to academic programs at WSU!

LEAP in the News
LEAP made the Wright State Newsroom last week with a story about our new Pronunciation Improvement course, offered this fall. LEAP’s director, Jeannette Horwitz, explains about the new course, "Obviously there seems to be a need. There are people who hold professional jobs in the community, but, for various reasons, want to improve their pronunciation and listening comprehension. This opportunity will give them more confidence."
