Fall Semester is up and running.
Find out what’s new in LEAP!

LEAP Fact

This semester, LEAP students who study full-time will attend a total of 168 classes. That adds up to 11,340 minutes of Intensive English!

LEAP Nominates WSU Police

The Wright State University Police Department Crime Prevention Unit received the 2017 Outstanding Unit Award for its devotion to student safety and ability to engage students through their content.

Jeannette Horwitz, LEAP Program director, and Karen Berry, an instructor in the LEAP Program, commended the Crime Prevention Unit on its ability to help international students feel safe on campus.
Spotlight: World Learning Scholarship Students

This semester, LEAP is happy to welcome three World Learning sponsored students. Maysouly (Laos), Mariama (Mauritania), and Mohamed (Algeria) have all come to study one semester with LEAP. During the Spring semester, they will take university classes related to their majors along with a class in American studies.

All three are part of The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (Global UGRAD) brings future leaders to the U.S. to experience the U.S. educational system, share their culture, and explore U.S. culture and values. To learn more, see www.worldlearning.org

Pronunciation Improvement Course

The first session of LEAP’s new "Pronunciation Improvement" course is half finished. Time sure does fly when you’re using voice and articulators to improve the accuracy of your speech production. Session #2 starts on October 16. Contact us at leapadmissions@wright.edu for registration information.

LEAP Activities: Scavenger Hunt

Last week, the Level 3 Integrated Skills students took part in a campus wide scavenger hunt. Students got to learn about campus services and resources.

Many of them even got to visit the colleges that they’ll be admitted to after they finish their English studies in the LEAP Program.
Upcoming Events

October 31 - LEAP Halloween Cultural Hour, 2:00pm - 3:00pm, Millett Hall Atrium
November 17 - LEAP Thanksgiving Cultural Hour, 12:15pm -1:15pm, Millett Hall Atrium
November 22-24 - Thanksgiving Break, WSU closed

Location:
106 Allyn Hall
Phone: (937) 775-5287
Email: leapadmissions@wright.edu