March 2022

Halfway through the semester already!

The days are getting longer, and my crocuses are coming up. Spring is on the horizon. Dare we hope it will bring not only nice weather, but a continued downturn in COVID cases?

The approval of the college reorg by the Board of Trustees means we can make progress toward implementation. Once I have approval for the appointment of chairs for the three schools you can begin to have meetings so you can get to know your new colleagues.

If you are interested in a professional view of the Russia-Ukraine crisis, plan on attending the panel discussion on March 8 at noon in 157 Rike or virtually via WebEx at <https://wright.webex.com/meet/vaughn.shannon>.

See the flyer below for the upcoming Social Justice Fair on March 4 and 5, and mark your calendars for the upcoming Ryterband Lecture in Judaic Studies on March 31 at 7:00 pm and the Banks lecture on April 7 at 3:30. More information will be available soon. And of course, Spring means ArtsGala, planned to be in person this year on April 9. Information about discounted tickets for faculty and staff will be available soon.

Have a terrific Spring Break!
