Senior Lecturer Bobby Rubin will discuss his collaboration with the English ska band, The Skapones. Bobby's journey to writing song lyrics for The Skapones began with his love for their music; he was an instant fan and became what many might describe as a "superfan." After befriending the band and being asked to critique some unfinished songs in the process of being recorded, Bobby began collaborating with the lead guitarist and main songwriter for the band. He will discuss the creative process involved in writing song lyrics and his personal experiences with this process today at 3:30 p.m., 286 Millett Hall.

Here's a good idea! Say hello to the new student ambassadors for English. These students will be spreading the message around campus about how cool and useful it is to study English at Wright State. Thanks to Ryan Oates, Judy Cronenwett, Emily Hare, MacKenzie Guthrie, and Jason Vogel (left photo) and Rachel Moorman, Andrea Mattingly, and Emily Ward (right photo).

Put on your dancing shoes! Wright State University's Raiderthon will feature a 15-hour dance marathon beginning on Saturday, Nov. 16, from 10 a.m. to 1 a.m. in the Student Union Apollo Room. All proceeds will go to Dayton Children's Hospital and will help pay for medical equipment and supplies for patients and their families.

Registration for Raiderthon is $15, which includes three meals, live entertainment and meet and greets with some of the Miracle Network families. Those who cannot attend can still donate on the Raiderthon website.
