

COLA Weekly

November 22, 2019

As Thanksgiving gets ever closer, SPIA celebrated the season by collecting $155 and food items for the food pantry. Thanks!

You have received a link to a survey about the University Libraries, created with the input of the Faculty Senate's Library Faculty Advisory Board. The Libraries will use the survey results to analyze resource needs; guide collection decisions; generate ideas for future services, resources, or facilities improvements; improve existing services and the marketing of those services to faculty; and quantify a key performance ratio on user satisfaction in our program effectiveness review. This is important, so please try to find the time to fill it out before the survey closes on November 25.

As you make your weekend plans don't forget the Fall Dance Concert! It's a chance to experience the talents of our wonderful dance students in the beautiful space of 170 CAC. Performance times are today, November 22, at 8 and tomorrow at 2.

On Friday, November 8, 75 high school students visited the Wright State campus to attend the sixth annual Latin Day. Students attending the event came from four area schools, Vandalia-Butler, Carroll, Fairmont, and Northwestern, where Latin instruction remains an integral part of the curriculum. Hosted by the Department of Classics, Latin Day promotes the study of Classical languages by offering students entertaining activities that also educate them about the Classical world. Students are pictured here learning about Graeco-Roman binding spells, which involved the inscribing of curse tablets and the manipulation of images. I wonder if they worked?

This week's featured DSAB member is B Lenz. B is a Political Science major and a Design Tech minor. They spent their first year of college working with the Office of LGBTQA Affairs on campus as a Community Engagement Coordinator. While their freshman year was spent doing Our Voice Panels, running an Affinity Network on campus, and working as the Office of LGBTQA Affairs Social Media Coordinator, they are excited to branch out and work with COLA to engage new students and help their voices be heard.

There will not be a COLA Weekly next Friday as we all recover from Thanksgiving feasting. The next edition will be on Friday, December 6. Enjoy your break!
