ACTIVISM INTERNSHIP
COMMUNITY PARTNER: DISTRICT 10 INDIVISIBLE FOR ALL

EXPERIENCE

The ONEIL Center at Wright State University is partnering with District 10 Indivisible for All (DIFA), a grassroots activist organization, to provide internship opportunities to Wright State students for Fall 2020.

This internship is a great opportunity if you’re interested in politically advocating for any of the following, especially in a presidential election year:

- Women & minorities
- Immigrants & migrants
- LGBTQIA+
- Workers’ rights
- Voters’ rights
- Equity and justice
- Healthcare
- Education
- Environment
- Gun safety

What you’ll be doing:
This internship is designed to be flexible and customizable to students’ interests and can include:

- Working closely with DIFA leadership under the supervision of faculty and peer mentors at The ONEIL Center
- Learning the history of progressive activism
- Developing your activist toolkit of organizing and demonstrating strategies
- Assisting with organizing events, e.g., rallies, protests, canvasses, phone banks, petitions
- Researching upcoming legislation and presenting a call to action at a DIFA meeting
- Applying specialized skills to your activism, e.g., social media management, writing, graphics and document design, web development, and more

REQUIREMENTS

This internship is being offered as an unpaid internship for 10-20 hours per week. Interested students should meet all of the following requirements:

- Meet internship requirements from major program of study
- Be enrolled in a relevant academic program for which civic engagement and activism would be approved for an internship
- Have the capacity to work virtually during regular business hours and to virtually attend some evening or weekend events
- Be a great team player and demonstrate an eagerness to learn
- Support DIFA’s mission and values

THE ONEIL CENTER

The ONEIL Center provides student interns with these great benefits:

- Flexible scheduling around your classes
- Vibrant, transdisciplinary collaborative environment with multiple faculty and students from both Wright State campuses
- Networking opportunities with area businesses, nonprofits, and entrepreneurs
- Competitive paid and unpaid internships
