

One of the very best reasons to work on a college campus is the opportunity to attend wonderful lectures given by accomplished guest speakers. Below are just a few coming up in the next few weeks:

Today, September 27 from 2:30-3:25 in 101 Fawcett Hall you have the opportunity to hear Colonel David Madden of the American Civil Liberties Union talk about free speech. The talk is titled "Do You Know Your Campus Free-Speech Rights?" and will allow you to find out about hate speech vs. free speech when it comes to protests and demonstrations, social media and blog posts, classroom discussions, and invited speakers. What is heckler's veto? How does the university allow for free speech and still keep its students safe? Learn all of this and more! For more information, contact Stephanie Dickey: stephanie.dickey@wright.edu.

On Thursday, October 3 at 5 pm in 340 Oelman Khalid Elgindy will speak on "Trump and the Palestinians: 'Deal of the Century' or End of the Road?" Elgindy is the author of the newly released Blind Spot: Americans and Palestinians from Balfour to Trump (Brookings Institution Press, 2019). He is a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution Center for Middle East Policy, and served as an adviser to the Palestinian Authority in Ramallah on permanent status negotiations from 2004 to 2009. The lecture is sponsored by the Middle East and Islamic Studies Lecture Program and the University Center for International Education. For more information, contact Awad Halabi: awad.halabi@wright.edu

On Monday, October 7 at 2:30 in 009 Student Success Center Dr. Christopher M. White, Professor of History at Marshall University will talk about "The Drug War in the Americas." The talk is sponsored by the History Department. For more information, contact John Sherman: john.sherman@wright.edu

I'd like for you to meet the great group of students who make up the Dean's Student Advisory Board (DSAB), so will introduce you to a new member each week.

Leah Dryden is the President of DSAB this year. She is a senior majoring in Political Science with a minor in Professional Writing. After her undergraduate degree, Leah wants to pursue a master's in higher education administration, and work as an education lobbyist. Leah also holds other positions on campus, such as being the commuter senator for Student Government, a senior delegate of the Model UN team, and an admissions ambassador. She's the director of campus activities for her sorority, Alpha Xi Delta. In her free time, Leah loves to go thrifting, watch Netflix, and hang out with friends.

Linda Caron, Dean
College of Liberal Arts

Upcoming Events

Do You Know Your Campus Free-Speech Rights? Guest Speaker, David Madden, talks about Hate Speech vs. Free Speech and more, Friday, September 27, 2:30 - 3:25 p.m., 101 Fawcett. Free and open to the public.

Trump and the Palestinians: Deal of the Century or End of the Road? with guest speaker Khalid Elgindy, Thursday, October 3, 3:00 - 5:00 p.m., 340 Oelman.

Jazz Ensemble, Thursday, October 3, 7:00 p.m. Spring Valley Academy

The Drug War in the Americas. with guest speaker Dr. Christopher M. White from Marshall University, Monday, October 7, 2:30 p.m. 009 Student Success Center.

Chamber Orchestra Concert, Tuesday, October 8, 8:00 p.m. Schuster Hall, Creative Arts Center

Wind Symphony Concert, Wednesday, October 9, 7:30 p.m. Schuster Hall, Creative Arts Center

CLASS CORNER

Interviewing for Liberal Arts Students

Tuesday, October 1, 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.
106 Millett

Wright Patterson Air Force Base Career Networking Event

Thursday, October 10, 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. 109 Oelman Hall

Preparing for a Career Fair, Liberal Arts Style

Thursday, October 10, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.
106 Millett