The Ohio Democratic Party is seeking ambitious and hard-working fellows for the Campaign for Ohio. The Campaign for Ohio will work with Democratic Candidates up and down the ticket in 2018 to reelect Senator Sherrod Brown, and take back Ohio’s Statewide Offices.

Gain firsthand experience in a top-tier, fast paced campaign environment, led by professionals from across the country. If you are enthusiastic about politics and want to learn about electing Democrats, this is the way to learn how a campaign works.

Responsibilities will include:

- Recruiting and organizing volunteers in your community
- Learning how to utilize digital organizing tools
- Attending and working campaign events
- Working with local community leaders to facilitate outreach
- Engaging in voter outreach and data integrity
- Having fun and making a difference in your community!

The ideal candidate must be high energy, efficient, well-organized and be able to think on their feet. We are looking for people who can multi-task, work well with deadlines and under pressure and are strongly committed to Democratic ideals. Candidates with excellent oral and written communication skills are preferred.

These positions will be available throughout the state. There are opportunities for evening and weekend hours as well as during the regular ‘business’ day. We will accommodate school and work schedules, with an expectation of a 10 hour commitment per week.

This rewarding opportunity is a non-paid fellowship, but can frequently be applied toward credit for school. Fellows will gain invaluable battleground experience, and is ideal for any student considering a future in politics.

To apply, please send resumes to fellows@ohiodems.org

Paid for by the Ohio Democratic Party.
Printed in house.