

ANTHROPOLOGY MINOR REQUIREMENTS

The minor in Anthropology provides a cluster of courses that constitutes a coherent introduction to the subfields of the discipline. It is intended for students in other major fields of study who wish to supplement those areas with anthropological perspectives.

OBJECTIVES

1. Students pursuing an Anthropology minor should be broadly exposed to the content of the subfields of the discipline.
2. Students should be exposed to the methodology as well as the results of ethnographic and ethological studies.
3. Students should develop an appreciation of the biological basis of human culture.
4. Students should develop an awareness of the methods and theories employed by archaeology in the study of past cultures.

The minor in Anthropology contains 21 credit hours. This includes 9 hours in these introductory courses (ATH 2100, 2200 and ATH 2150) which expose students to the subfields of cultural and physical anthropology and archaeology. Upper-level courses are structured to ensure that students have an opportunity to examine the content of each subfield in greater depth.
