To Apply:

Admission to the B.F.A. Acting and Musical Theatre programs is by audition/interview. Scholarship awards will be based on the admission audition/interview. To be considered for acceptance into any program, you must complete the BFA application form and pay the audition/interview fee.

Applicants for admission and scholarship must submit the following five items no later than two weeks before the audition date: (1) a completed admission/scholarship application, (2) the $25 audition/interview fee, (3) a recent headshot or photograph, (4) a resume of pertinent experience and training as a performer. (5) Please attach a response to the following personal statement: Describe an ideal theatre training environment for you. Lastly, you must also apply and be accepted for admission to Wright State University. Acting and musical theatre students are invited to attend Master classes offered by the faculty on November 3, 2023, and February 2, 2024. All auditions, applications, and interviews must be completed by February 18, 2024 for scholarship consideration.

Any student auditioning/interviewing for a BFA program must pay an audition fee of $25.00. This includes all audition/interview locations. Payment is only available at www.wright.edu/tdmp/auditionfee.

Auditions and Interviews

Acting and Musical Theatre Auditions (Indicate area of interest below)

2024-25 Auditions will be held in-person on Wright State's Dayton campus, virtually on Zoom, and via several unified audition facilitators. If you select a virtual audition, you will receive an email which will give you information on how to schedule your audition. Pre-screening is not required in order to audition in person or virtually, but if you wish, you can submit a prescreening audition through acceptd.com. Admission to the BFA Acting and Musical Theatre programs is based on your audition and academic application to Wright State University. Wright State is using the 2023-2024 Musical Theatre Common Prescreen criteria for those who do wish to submit a pre-screen.
