and Interviews

Dance Audition

2022-2023 Audition submissions for the Dance Program will be in-person for all that are able. Dance auditions will consist of one of the following: Friday Master Class of both ballet and modern, or Saturday audition of a ballet barre followed by learning a short combination from each of the three disciplines: ballet, modern and jazz.

Dancers interested in the Dayton Ballet II or Dayton Contemporary Dance Company II programs must submit a link or DVD two weeks prior to the audition and by February 25, 2022. The link should show excerpts from a typical class rather than stage performance. It must include brief barre and center work, brief adagio, allegro, grande allegro, and a variety of turns. For DCDCII, also include two contrasting modern combinations.

Please visit our website at www.wright.edu/tdmp, Auditions, Dance for audition requirements.

Dancers who cannot attend the WSU in-person dance auditions may audition through Acceptd.com website. Please submit your BFA application to WSU Department of Theatre, Dance and Motion Pictures, go to getacceptd.com, open an account, visit the WSU page and follow the instructions for the WSU Dance Program. Your dance submissions will include a self-taped video of a brief ballet barre and four set video clips of combinations that you will learn, tape and submit. These videos include a ballet adagio, ballet petite allegro, modern combination and jazz combination.
