ASSISTANT COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR RECEIVES LEADERSHIP/DIVERSITY AWARD

Amy Wiedeman Recognized for Excellence, Commitment to Montgomery County

Dayton, Ohio (October 30, 2014) – Assistant Montgomery County Administrator Amy Wiedeman has been recognized as one of the 2014 Most Powerful and Influential Women of Ohio by the Ohio Diversity and Leadership Council.

Dennis Kennedy, Founder & CEO,
National Diversity Council and
Montgomery County Assistant County
Administrator Amy Wiedeman

Wiedeman has been with Montgomery County in various capacities for more than 30 years and is currently the Assistant County Administrator and Administrative Services Director. Wiedeman oversees the Animal Resource Center, Communications, Emergency Management, Facilities Management, Human Resources, Information Technology, Purchasing/Central Services and Risk Management. She has served on several community and arts boards and committees and currently serves as the Chair for the Five Rivers Community Health Centers of Dayton and as a Board member for Dayton Crayons to Classrooms, connecting essential resources to teachers and enhancing learning for students in need.

“Amy is an incredibly valuable member of the Montgomery County team and our community,” said County Administrator Joseph P. Tuss. “Amy contributes countless hours to moving our County forward through the Commissioners’ Strategic Plan and MCOFuture initiative.”

Criteria for the “Most Powerful and Influential Women in Ohio” Award includes:

- Provides leadership excellence in the public and/or private sectors
- Sustains a record of accomplishments and/or contributions to field of work throughout scope of her career
- Has clout within her organization in terms of significant impact on revenues, profitability, and/or direction of the organization
- Demonstrates leadership and commitment to community well-being and/or high visibility in the community
- Exhibits and demonstrates a commitment to the highest ethical standards and professional excellence

Wiedeman accepted her award on October 30 in Columbus at the 7th Annual Ohio Diversity and Leadership Conference.
