

FR 4940: La Cuisine dans le Cinéma Français

June 9-20, 2014- 9 am-1pm.

- Karine Daddah taught cooking in the Dorothy Lane Market ,the Jungle Jim and Cookswares schools of cooking. A gourmet chef and a master teacher, she will reveal kitchen secrets of the best chefs while introducing her students to an essential part of French culture – la gastronomie.
- She will deliver the class in a hands-on cooking practicum while relying on French films to reinforce the key themes. There will be film viewing & analysis and cooking classes.
- The cooking classes will take place in The Rockafield House at WSU twice a week and we will have regular class on the campus the other days.
- We will also meet with French chef, Dominique Fortin from "C'est tout Bistro" in Oakwood for a private cooking lesson and a French lunch on the terrasse!:) and we will have a guided tour in French of the Dorothy Lane Market gourmet store.

Make sure you register! We have limited space.
Any questions, please contact karine.ould-daddah@wright.edu